

Master Seller Appointment Agreement

1. Agreement

11. This document governs your appointment to the Marketplacer Seller Program known as "Curator" (Program). Capitalised terms not defined herein have the meanings given in the Seller Appointment Form supplied to you together with these terms (Form).
12. As consideration for the Fees, your appointment to the Program will grant you the opportunity to sell on Channels and access the Services described in the Form on these terms and conditions.
13. By signing one or more Forms which incorporate this Master Seller Appointment Agreement (together, the Form and these terms constitute the Agreement), you are entering into a legally binding contract pursuant to which you are: (a) joining the Program; (b) agreeing to comply with these terms and conditions when you sell through a Channel and/or use our Platform and Services; and (c) committing to pay the Fees specified in the Form as consideration for these services and opportunities.
14. On joining the Program you may offer to sell your products through one or more Storefronts. We will connect you to interested Channels, and, where you and a Channel jointly agree, we will facilitate your onboarding as a seller on the relevant Storefront.
15. As part of onboarding to each Channel, Channels will require legal binding commitments from you regarding the supply of your products on their Storefronts, which will take the form of either:
 - (a) (Seller Contract) a separate legal contract on the Channel's own terms and conditions between you and the Channel (Seller Contract). We are not a party to Seller Contracts; however, we will assist the Channel and you to finalise the Seller Contract for expediency. You should read the Seller Contract carefully before accepting it, and you should follow the Channel's instructions for entering into the Seller Contract; or
 - (b) (Deed of Indemnity) Channels may choose to rely on the commitments you make in respect of this MSAA, in which case you will be required to supply them with a Deed of Indemnity supplied by us and acceptable to both you and the relevant Channel which: (a) requires you to provide an indemnity in their favour, including for material breaches of this MSAA by you that cause them any loss or damage; and (b) may include Channel-specific policies, manuals service levels, and other special terms the Channel requires you to comply with in order to sell Products on their Storefront (being a Deed of Indemnity).
16. You will not be permitted to complete onboarding to a Channel's Storefront unless or until you have executed the contract referred to in clause 15(a) or (b) as applicable, completed all Checks described in clause 1.9 and, if applicable, entered into the PSP Account Agreement referred to in clause 6.
17. You must comply with both this Agreement between us, and the Seller Contract or Deed of Indemnity between you and the Channel, and nothing contained in any Seller Contract or Deed of Indemnity diminishes your responsibilities under this Agreement except as expressly stated herein.
18. To offer the Program as a scaled solution to multiple sellers and Channels, we limit our liability under clauses 13 and 14, and you agree to indemnify us for certain kinds of loss that you might cause us through your use of our Platform.
19. It is an important requirement of the Program that you must promptly, fully and accurately complete any due diligence checks required to verify your suitability for the Program, including initial and ongoing checks, or ad hoc checks on request, as required by us, our payment services provider (PSP), or a Channel (Checks) and in accordance with the remainder of this clause. Checks may be carried out on you, your personnel, beneficial owners and/or authorised users of the Platform or our payment services provider's services. If you refuse to complete Checks within 2 business days of receiving a request by email, or Checks produce unsatisfactory results (at our discretion), we may: (a) terminate this Agreement on 5 days' written notice; (b) refuse to provide or suspend one or more services to you; or (c) you may not be permitted to complete onboarding to the relevant Channel's Storefront. You acknowledge that provision of, and your use of, the services herein are subject to completion of Checks to Marketplacer's satisfaction.
- 1.10. You must provide complete, accurate, and up to date information at all times on request for the purpose of Checks. Losses arising from your failure to provide complete or accurate information to us, our payment services provider, or a Channel, and/or failure to provide requested information within the required timeline shall be your responsibility.
- 1.11. You acknowledge that neither this Agreement nor any Seller Contract guarantees you any exclusivity or minimum volume of Channel connections or any minimum number of sales on or through any Storefront. We do not guarantee that participation in the Program will result in you being invited to sell Products through a particular Channel, as invitations are always issued at the discretion of the Channel. We make no representations or guarantees that you will sell any Products using our Services.
- 1.12. We provide the Platform and Services to you so that you have the opportunity to list and sell your products and/or services (Products) to customers of Channels

(Buyers) through the Platform on Storefronts. You are responsible for Products and for the terms of sale you set for them. When you sell a Product to a Buyer, you are contracting directly with that Buyer to sell your Products to them, and neither us nor any Channel is a party to, or responsible for, that contract for the purchase and supply of your Products. We do not control and are not responsible for the actions of Buyers.

2. Modifications to Services or this Agreement

- 2.1. We reserve the right to update or make changes to any part of this Agreement on notice to you to the extent reasonably necessary to protect Marketplacer's legitimate business interests. We will notify you of these changes in a way which is reasonable based on the nature of the change and the impact it may have on your rights under this Agreement.
- 2.2. If you do not agree to any material changes we make under clause 2.1, you may cease using the Services and terminate this Agreement by providing notice to us before the end of the applicable notice period, in which case this Agreement shall continue unamended until your notice of termination takes effect and clause 15.9 will apply. All payment obligations for the remainder of any period of Minimum Commitment, if applicable, are non-cancellable and all amounts paid are non-refundable.
- 2.3. Your continued use of our Services following the end of the applicable notice period notified to you under clause 2.1 will constitute acceptance of any changes we make to this Agreement.

3. Marketplacer Platform

- 3.1. Subject to your satisfaction of the requirements in clause 1.6, we will provide you with an account within the relevant Channel's instance of the Platform which you may, depending on your method of integration, use to access our Platform and list and sell your products as agreed with the relevant Channel through that Channel's Storefront (Products). We are not responsible for product selection between you and the relevant Channel.
- 3.2. You are responsible for appointing the administrators, managers or other end users of your account (End Users). You are responsible for the activity that occurs on your accounts, and you must keep your account password and details secure. We are not responsible for any unauthorised activity on your account occurring because you failed to keep your account login information secure. You must ensure your accounts are not used for any illegal or fraudulent purpose. You will be responsible for any actions taken by End Users, your affiliates, agents, or other third parties on your behalf in connection with this Agreement.
- 3.3. The Platform is provided "as is" and is not provided free of defects, nor will it be available at all times and uninterrupted. Marketplacer makes no guarantee that the Platform or any content on either of them will always be available or be uninterrupted except that Marketplacer will use reasonable efforts to minimise any downtime on the Platform. From time to time, the Platform may be unavailable for maintenance and/or updates, or due to unexpected technical issues.

- 3.4. Marketplacer grants to you during the Term a non-exclusive, non-transferable, non-sublicensable and terminable right to access and use the Platform on a 'software-as-a-service' basis for the purpose of listing and selling your goods and services to buyers on Storefronts, accessing the Services and in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.
- 3.5. You grant to Marketplacer a worldwide license to access, use, process, copy, distribute, perform, export, modify, make derivative works and display all data and information that is provided to or collected by Marketplacer in connection with this Agreement relating to you and your operations, business, buyers, service providers, distributors, personnel, consultants, advisors, assets and transactions in whatever form such information may exist, regardless of whether such data or information is provided by, or collected from, you or a third party (Seller Data):
 - (a) to the extent necessary to perform our obligations under this Agreement; and
 - (b) for the additional purposes described in clauses 3.6 and 3.7.
- 3.6. Without limitation, the following activities are expressly agreed by the parties to be within the scope of performing our obligations under this Agreement: assuring acceptable quality of service, Platform security, error monitoring, incident monitoring and management, user and technical support and supply of services to you or a Channel, including accessing your accounts and portals and the accounts and portals of any Channels you sell Products on, responding to support requests, product monitoring and management, usage and performance monitoring and management, supplying Services, Platform developments and improvements, and sharing Seller Data with Channels and PSPs and the relevant payment networks in connection with this Agreement.
- 3.7. You agree that Marketplacer may collect, aggregate, use and disclose Seller Data provided such data is de-identified, meaning that it cannot be attributed or connected to an individual (Usage Data). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, Marketplacer owns all right, title and interest in any inferences, analytics or databases created using the Usage Data.
- 3.8. You must comply with our Acceptable Use Policy which is an essential term of the Agreement between us.

Master Seller Appointment Agreement

- 3.9. The Platform may permit you to generate a secret key and access token that allows an individual or entity to make authenticated requests to our or our service providers' APIs (API Key). In order to generate an API Key, you are required to accept Marketplacer's API Terms of Use, which are hereinafter incorporated by reference.
- 3.10. You must comply with any technical or security policies, specifications, limitations or other technical documentation (including product documentation) or instructions given to you by Marketplacer in connection with the use of the Platform or Services (Documentation). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, Marketplacer is not liable for any liability or damage caused or contributed to by your failure to comply with the Documentation.
- 3.11. We reserve the right, at any time and from time to time, to alter or change the Platform and/or Services and associated functionality in any way.
- 3.12. We may, at our discretion, in connection with the Platform:
- (a) investigate any suspected illegal activity on your account;
 - (b) refer fraudulent or abusive or illegal activity to the relevant authorities and in doing so, disclose information to such authorities relating to your account; and
 - (c) use mechanisms that rate or review, or allow buyers to rate or review, your Products or performance as a seller and we may make these ratings publicly available.
- 3.13. Marketplacer has not agreed to and does not agree to treat as confidential any suggestion or idea for improving or otherwise modifying the Platform including but not limited to, feature requests and requests for custom reports (Feedback) you provide to us, and nothing in this Agreement or in the parties' dealings arising out of or related to this Agreement will restrict Marketplacer's right to use, profit from disclose, publish, keep secret, or otherwise exploit Feedback, without compensating or crediting you.
- 4. Selling Products on Channels
- 4.1. Subject to this Agreement, you will always be solely responsible to Buyers for any Products they purchase via Storefronts, and liable for: (a) your Products and their compliance with applicable laws; (b) any transactions between you and Buyers through the Storefronts, the fulfilment of orders placed through a Storefront for your Products (Orders) and delivery of your Products to Buyers; (c) your Products, Listing Content (defined in clause 4.7) and any representations you make about your Products; and (d) any faults or failures related to your Products and the provision of any repairs, replacement or refunds to Buyers as a result.
- 4.2. Orders will be received by you through the Platform, and must be retrieved by you daily for processing in accordance with all SLAs, policies, manuals or other instructions issued to you by the Channel or us on the Channel's behalf (together, the Policies).
- 4.3. You must deliver all Products to buyers in accordance with the Policies and your agreement with the Buyer, including (without limitation) complying with all Policies with respect to pricing, inventory maintenance and shipping.
- 4.4. You are responsible for the delivery of Orders to Buyers and ensuring deliveries are received by Buyers undamaged and as described in the Product listing to their nominated address for delivery.
- 4.5. You acknowledge that Channels may withdraw your right to sell Products on their Storefronts at any time for any reason; we are not liable to you if this occurs and have no control over the acts or omissions of Channels. You agree that Channels are responsible for Product selection, vetting and approval, and not us.
- 4.6. You agree to only sell Products you have a legal right to sell in the jurisdiction(s) agreed between you and the Channel (Jurisdiction). On request, you will provide us or the Channel with evidence that you are licensed or otherwise have the necessary rights to use Listing Content in the Jurisdiction.
- 4.7. You are responsible for all information and images uploaded to the Platform in order to place the Products on a Storefront through the Platform and in accordance with the relevant Channel's requirements (Listing Content). Among other things, this may include product images, descriptions, product information and titles.
- 4.8. You agree that we are not responsible for reviewing or policing Listing Content or any third party's use of such Listing Content. You must ensure that the Listing Content is materially accurate when provided and will promptly update Listing Content whenever there is a change to it.
- 4.9. You must ensure all Products delivered to buyers are materially as described in the Listing Content and that any material information that may affect a Buyer's decision to purchase a Product, such as product origin, condition, or potential hazards is disclosed in the relevant Product listing.
- 4.10. If we request that you remove Product listings or Listing Content from the Platform for any reason, you must make commercially reasonable efforts to remove them within no longer than 24 hours of such request and must not re-list them unless authorised by us in writing. If you do not comply with this clause, you agree that we may remove Product listings or Listing Content from the Platform on your behalf.

- 4.11. Where we receive a notification from any third party which alleges a breach of this clause 4 or applicable laws with regards to any Product listing or Listing Content, we have the right to edit, suspend, prohibit, remove, or take other action in relation to a Product listing on the Platform as we may determine, acting reasonably, is necessary, based on information available to us at the time. Without limiting the foregoing, Marketplacer may remove your Product listings from the Platform in response to notices of alleged copyright infringement, trademark misappropriation, or other infringements of Intellectual Property Rights (meaning any and all intellectual and industrial property rights subsisting in any part of the universe in any and all media (whether now known or created in the future) including, without limitation, rights in the nature of copyright, registered design or other design right, trade mark, patent rights, circuit layout rights, trade secrets and any corresponding proprietary rights (whether registered or common law) under the laws of any jurisdiction).
- 4.12. You must advise buyers when Products for which an Order has been made have become unavailable and, in such circumstances, promptly advise the relevant Channel.
- 4.13. You must:
- (a) comply with all applicable local, state, federal, and international laws, including but not limited to those related to consumer protection, product safety, advertising, privacy, and intellectual property;
 - (b) ensure that all Products are authentic, accurately described, and meet all applicable quality and safety standards. Counterfeit, unauthorised, or otherwise misrepresented Products are strictly prohibited;
 - (c) ensure all statements and descriptive literature about the Products (including the Listing Content) are, and will be, true and correct at the time such statements are made or literature uploaded to the Platform and/or a Storefront, and all such statements and literature are supported by data in compliance with applicable laws;
 - (d) own, or have the right to use, any intellectual property associated with Products and Listing Content, including trademarks, logos, images, and descriptions;
 - (e) ensure Listing Content and Products do not infringe third-party Intellectual Property Rights; and
 - (f) promptly co-operate and follow reasonable directions issued by the relevant Channel or Marketplacer on its behalf, as the case may be, when any allegation is made that any Listing Content or Product infringes Intellectual Property Rights of any person or entity.
- 4.14. If applicable, all prices you provide in Product listings must be clear, accurate, and reflective of the total cost, including any additional fees or taxes. You are prohibited from engaging in price manipulation, false advertising, or deceptive practices that could mislead consumers or harm the competitive integrity of the Storefront.
- 4.15. You agree to notify us immediately on becoming aware of any matter which may affect your ability to comply with this clause 4.
- 4.16. You must keep accurate and complete books, records, compliance information and accounts related to goods, services, transactions and this Agreement, and you hereby grant us the right, upon not less than 14 days prior written notice, during the term of this Agreement and for two (2) years after its termination or expiration, to conduct, during regular business hours, full and independent audits and investigations of the same reasonably required by us to confirm your compliance with the terms of this Agreement and applicable laws.
- 4.17. You or the relevant Channel (or Marketplacer on the Channel's behalf) may authorise refunds or adjustments to a buyer via the Platform. We do not take responsibility for erroneous adjustments, refunds, credits, or other payments made by you or a Channel. You must comply with the Seller Contract and Policies (as applicable) in respect of dealing with customer complaints, issues, refunds and replacements.
- 4.18. You must provide us with, and ensure that we always have, accurate, up-to-date details including but not limited to contact address, email address and payment information.
- ## 5. Fulfillment
- 5.1. You agree to comply with the relevant Channel's instructions and this clause 5 in respect of fulfilment of Orders unless you and the relevant Channel have agreed that you will fulfill Orders using dropshipping, in which case the Special Terms - Dropship apply (in addition to any requirements imposed by the Channel). To the extent that there is any inconsistency between a Channel's fulfilment requirements and this clause 5 (including Special Terms - Dropship if applicable), the Channel's requirements take precedence.
- 5.2. Neither Marketplacer nor the Channel is the "seller of record". You are solely responsible for, and must fulfill, all transactions with buyers which occur as a result of you listing Products on a Storefront through the Platform, including sale and delivery of the Products (including any cancellation rights, returns and dealing with complaints), save to the extent that the relevant Channel has the right to step in and deal with customer complaints in accordance with a Seller Contract or relevant Policy (if applicable). You must identify yourself as the seller of record, including on all packing slips or other information provided to buyers.

- 5.3. You agree not to hold us or the relevant Channel responsible for the quality, safety or legality of Products advertised by you, the accuracy of your Listing Content, or the shipping and delivery of Products by you. In addition, you must (except to the extent the following conflicts with the express terms of an agreement between you and the Channel):

- (a) honour refund and return policies stipulated by the relevant Channel and to the extent any special return or refund conditions apply to a Product, ensure these are clearly disclosed to Buyers prior to purchase;
- (b) provide responsive, fair, and courteous customer service to resolve buyer issues;
- (c) ensure timely, safe, and reliable shipping in accordance with Policies and that estimated delivery times are communicated to buyers; and
- (d) use appropriate packaging, labeling, and tracking and, unless otherwise instructed by a Channel, immediately inform buyers of any delays or issues with their Orders.

- 5.4. When a buyer places an Order, you acknowledge and agree that:

- (a) a contract of sale exists between you and the buyer for the supply of the Products which are the subject of the Order;
- (b) you will be committed to fulfilling the Order at the time the relevant Channel receives payment for the goods; and
- (c) at no time will we or the relevant Channel take ownership of, or title in, the goods, and legal ownership of the goods will transfer directly from you to the buyer.

- 5.5. You will enter into a separate agreement with each Buyer for the sale and delivery of Products purchased through the Storefront and must include any restrictions on the purchase of Products in your contract with the Buyer (for example where you are unable to deliver to certain locations). Neither Marketplacer nor the Channel are parties to the contract between you and the Buyer, and you must not represent otherwise in your communications with Buyers.

- 5.6. Marketplacer has no responsibility for any disputes or complaints between you, any Buyer and/or the Channel.

6. Fees and payment

- 6.1. As consideration for your participation in the Program, you agree to pay us the Fees described in the Form. Fees are non-refundable for the Minimum Commitment stated in the Form. In addition, if a Channel utilises Marketplacer's embedded fintech solution integrated into the Marketplacer platform as further described in the Form (MPay Service), then the fee schedule for the MPay Service provided in the Form will apply to you.

MPay Service Terms

- 6.2. The following clauses are only applicable to you when a Channel is using the MPay Service for seller payouts to you. The MPay Service is an optional add-on service and if not utilised by a Channel, the relevant Seller Contract will govern the payouts process applicable to you in those circumstances and clauses 6.2 to 6.24 will not apply unless or until the Channel chooses to utilise the MPay Service.

- 6.3. Marketplacer does not provide any service to you related to the processing or management of payments from transactions on the Storefront and will not receive funds belonging to you or your buyers, as all such activity is undertaken by its designated PSP. Any payment services available as part of the MPay Service that are regulated by applicable laws are provided by Marketplacer's chosen PSP or any of its regional banking partners. No such payment services are provided by Marketplacer itself.

- 6.4. As at the date of this Agreement, Marketplacer's PSP is:

- (a) if the region in which the PSP services are being used is Australia, Airwallex Pty Ltd (registered number 609653312 and AFSL number 487221);
- (b) if the region in which the PSP services are being used is the United Kingdom, Airwallex (UK) Limited (registered number 10103420 and license number 900876);
- (c) if the region in which the PSP services are being used is the United States, Airwallex US, LLC (registered number 7083651 and NMLS identification number 1928093);
- (d) if the region in which the PSP services are being used is the European Economic Area, Airwallex (Netherlands) BV (registered number 77519256 and Relation number R179622); or

Master Seller Appointment Agreement

- (e) if the region in which the PSP services are being used is New Zealand, Airwallex (New Zealand) Limited (registered number 8151714 and NZ FSPR number 1001602).
- 6.5. Buyers will place Orders using the Channel's checkout system and all proceeds from such transactions (including associated delivery charges) will first be processed by the relevant Channel (or its PSP), and then transferred to Marketplacer's PSP. Such proceeds received by Marketplacer's PSP are hereby referred to as the Sales Proceeds.
- 6.6. To enable you to receive payments in connection with the Program via the PSP, you may be required to (among such other things required by the PSP from time to time):
- (a) open an account with the PSP (PSP Account) and enter into each PSP's standard form account agreement (PSP Account Agreement);
 - (b) until such time as it stops making or receiving payments under the Program, remain a party to the PSP Account Agreement with a live (unblocked) PSP Account; and
 - (c) comply at all times with the terms of the PSP Account Agreement and any standards or policies of the PSP as notified by them or us, discharge all liabilities under the PSP Account Agreement, and not do anything which is prohibited by the PSP Account Agreement.
- 6.7. If applicable, you must ensure that the PSP Account is sufficiently funded at all times to allow refunds and other relevant amounts (e.g. reversal of duplicative transactions) to be paid from it.
- 6.8. You agree that we are irrevocably authorised to carry out such activity, access any information held by the PSP regarding your PSP Account, issue instructions to the PSP (which includes doing so in connection with enforcing compliance by you with this Agreement or an agreement between you and a Channel) and provide information to each PSP on your behalf, such as reporting of transaction data.
- 6.9. You hereby authorise Marketplacer (including via its PSP) to:
- (a) deduct the Fees and any other charges, authorised deductions or adjustments in accordance with this Agreement, (together the Authorised Deductions) from Sales Proceeds and otherwise when funds are loaded into your PSP Account;
 - (b) remit the remaining proceeds (Sales Proceeds received by Marketplacer less Authorised Deductions) to your nominated bank account or other agreed payment method in accordance with this Agreement.
- 6.10. If insufficient proceeds are available for Authorised Deductions under sub-paragraph 6.8, Marketplacer may, at its election, either:
- (a) offset any amounts owing to us from any future Sales Proceeds received by us; or
 - (b) require you to pay us any such amounts within 14 days of being notified by us.
- 6.11. Marketplacer is not a party to the PSP Account Agreement (which is a separate legal agreement between you and the PSP) and excludes any liability to you for the acts or omissions of the PSP. You have no recourse against us in respect of processing or managing payments under the Program and must seek recourse directly from the PSP.
- 6.12. You: (a) will provide such reporting on your PSP Account to us as may reasonably be required by us from time to time; and (b) authorise us to access your PSP Account and receive your data from the PSP to monitor your compliance with your obligations. You must provide all information reasonably required by us and/or a PSP in a timely and efficient manner. You agree that we may share any information provided by you with the PSP as reasonably required.
- 6.13. To the extent that we support you in technically integrating and administering the PSP Account as part of the Platform, we do so on behalf of (as agent for) you.
- 6.14. If you are granted access to a PSP Account, you are responsible for appointing the administrators, managers or other end users of your PSP Account. You are solely responsible for the activity that occurs on your accounts, and you must keep your account password and details secure. Marketplacer is not responsible for any unauthorised activity on the Seller's account occurring because the Seller failed to keep its account login information secure. Seller must ensure its accounts are not used for any illegal or fraudulent purpose. Seller will be responsible for any actions taken by Users, its affiliates, agents, or other third parties on its behalf in connection with this Agreement and its PSP Account Agreement.
- 6.15. On an ongoing basis, Marketplacer's PSP may perform verification and checks on the Seller's PSP Account, including requesting additional information or documents in relation to the Seller or Seller's PSP Account. Seller must comply with any requests for additional information or documents from Marketplacer as directed by the PSP from time to time, and will do so on a timely basis. Seller must provide all additional requested information or documents within the timeframe specified by Marketplacer, the PSP, its partners and/or any other of the PSP's third-party service providers.

- 6.16. Seller agrees to provide all information necessary, including any information as the PSP may require from Marketplacer from time to time, to allow the PSP to allocate any funds it receives into the PSP Account or to make payouts for PSP accounts. Seller will perform all activities required for the PSP to provide the PSP services in accordance with the PSP's privacy policy.
- 6.17. Marketplacer will not be liable to you if its PSP withholds, rejects, conditions, cancels or delays any transaction in order to comply with applicable laws or for any other reason specified by the PSP in the relevant agreement between you.
- 6.18. We may change PSPs on reasonable written notice to you from time to time, and you will cooperate with us as needed in connection with such change.
- 6.19. You will indemnify us against all liabilities, costs, expenses, damages and losses (including any direct losses, loss of profit, loss of reputation and all interest, penalties, fines, charges, refunds, reversals and legal costs (calculated on a full indemnity basis) and other reasonable professional costs and expenses) suffered or incurred by us resulting from any third party claim arising out of or in connection with a breach of this clause 6.
- 6.20. Certain disputes related to payments (including chargeback requests and reports of fraud) will be dealt with by the PSP (including acquirors) whose determination is final.
- 6.21. You will be liable for any and all service or transaction fees levied by your bank or any third-party payment gateway in connection with any payments made by us to you.
- 6.22. With each payment, you will be issued a statement which outlines the total Sales Proceeds and Authorised Deductions for the payment period. Marketplacer is not responsible for any deductions made by the Channel prior to Sales Proceeds being received by us; any dispute regarding such deductions must be addressed directly with the Channel pursuant to your agreement with the Channel.
- 6.23. The relevant Channel will determine when "supply" of a Product has occurred but this will generally be at the time payment of the purchase price has been received in full by the channel, you have accepted the relevant Order from the Buyer, and delivery of the Product has occurred to the Buyer's nominated address.
- 6.24. To the extent that any breach of your agreement with a third party service provider results in us being temporarily or permanently unable to provide one or more services to you, we are not liable for any failure to provide such service to you.

7. Taxes

- 7.1. If Marketplacer reasonably determines that an applicable law or any taxing authority requires it to deduct or withhold any taxes from a payment to the Seller under the Agreement, Marketplacer shall deduct and withhold any such taxes as and when the legal obligation to withhold arises, and the Seller hereby irrevocably consents to such withholdings.
- 7.2. The Seller agrees to provide Marketplacer with appropriate withholding certificates or other certificates or documentation, before any payment is made to the Seller under this Agreement, as required by applicable laws, and upon subsequent request by Marketplacer.
- 7.3. The Seller agrees to file all required returns, report any income, and pay any applicable taxes incurred as a result of the payments the Seller receives under this Agreement in a timely fashion, and to provide, upon request, evidence to Marketplacer that such income was reported.
- 7.4. To the extent required by applicable laws, Marketplacer agrees to provide appropriate forms to you evidencing the amounts paid to you under the terms of the Agreement and any taxes withheld.
- 7.5. If applicable, you are responsible for: (a) the compliance and timely export and/or import of the Products anywhere in the world and for ensuring that the Products are customs cleared on the provision of accurate data elements (including the payment of any duties, levies and plastic packaging tax which apply at the rate applicable at the time of border clearance of the Products into the place of delivery); and (b) accounting for any plastic packaging tax or other taxes due when Products are imported into the place of delivery.

8. Confidentiality

- 8.1. You or your affiliates (each a Receiving Party) may receive non-public information relating to our business, or the business of our affiliates or service providers, or the business of Channels in connection with the Program (each a Disclosing Party), including the terms of this Agreement, whether or not originated by the Disclosing Party and whether or not disclosed prior to or after the signing of this Agreement, which is marked or otherwise designated as confidential at the time of disclosure or which, based on the nature of the information or the circumstances of its disclosure, would reasonably be understood to be confidential or proprietary (Confidential Information). Confidential Information does not include information:

Master Seller Appointment Agreement

- (a) which is or becomes part of the public domain other than through breach of this Agreement;
- (b) which was already known to Receiving Party at the time of the disclosure by the Disclosing Party;
- (c) which the Receiving Party receives from a third party entitled to disclose it; or
- (d) independently developed without use of or reference to any Confidential Information of the Disclosing Party by employees of the Receiving Party who had no access to such information.

8.2. You agree that:

- (a) all Confidential Information will remain our exclusive property;
- (b) you will use and disclose Confidential Information only as is necessary for performance of this Agreement or, if applicable, an Agreement;
- (c) you will not directly or indirectly (including through a third party), otherwise use or disclose Confidential Information to any other person; and
- (d) you will take all reasonable measures to protect the Confidential Information against any use or disclosure not expressly permitted in this Agreement.

8.3. The confidentiality obligations hereunder shall continue for 2 years from the expiration or termination of this Agreement; provided, however, that you shall keep any of our trade secrets confidential as long as such information is deemed a trade secret by us.

9. Data Protection

- 9.1. Where you provide us with personal information, our Privacy Policies will govern how we use or disclose that information. These can be found on our Privacy Page at marketplacer.com/legal.
